A QUESTION OF INSURANCE. The question was asked whether the furniwas insured and it was stated that the insurance only covered the buildings.

It was the opinion of Mr. Mitchell that the valuable property in the school buildings ought to be insured as well as the buildings.

Superintendent Powell contributed to the ion by saying that some of the memers of Congress thought that the government might as well insure its own buildings; that is, not put insurance on them at all. He said that the insurance on school buildings was very low—only one-tenth of 1 per cent—and was awarded by contract.

Dora Harris, a colored woman, acting the part of a law-abiding individual, went to the house of Sophie Viers, also colored, Sunday night to secure evidence for the police, who suspected the Viers woman of selling liquor without a license. Dora lives at No. 349 Wilson street in the county, and Sophie is one of her neighbors.

Dora procured a drink, so it is claimed, and soon afterward she was taken violently ill, displaying symptoms of poisoning. Dr. Winters was called to see the woman and he found her in a precarious condition. Upon the strength of the sick woman's statement Policemen Zoe and McCormick arrested Sophie and locked her up. She is held until the case can be fully investigated.

The failure of the crops has been a terrible blow to his schemes, and many of his finest plans have been shattered by this national calamity.

The failure of the crops has not been universal. In the Caucasus the harvest was so abundant that grain is still rotting at the stations for want of rolling stock to carry it away. The government has tried to remedy this drawback by sending over 2.000 trucks south, but these will not be sufficient.

There is much reason to suppose that there will be a famine next year also. The autumn wheat has been seriously injured by the rain and it is very probable that the spring crops will turn out no better than they did this year.

The political horizon is also much overcast, forthcoming report of the commissioner of education, which the latter had sent to the Commissioners relative to the introduction of Emperor William. YOUNG MESEROLE ON TRIAL.

He is Charged With the Murder of Theodore Larbig in Brooklyn.

The court room in Brooklyn, in which Darwin J. Meserole was put on trial yesterday for schools, offered the following resolution: murder, was thronged with a curious crowd of Teachers of night schools being paid for their people. The prominence of those interested, services rendered per night, the following rule as well as the attractive appearance of Mrs. is adopted by the board: When absent from Dovie Forney Comstock, added interest to the school the teacher must in all cases provide a trial. The prisoner, who is charged with the stock's flat last June, is the son of Gen. J. V. gade of the National Guard, and is at present president of the Williamsburg Savings Pank. The prisoner, his son, who is twenty-seven years old, has been in business as a broker since ture and other contents of school buildings his majority. He made the acquaintance of Mrs. Comstock last summer and afterward

The day on which the murder occurred he accompanied her to the races, and in the even-ing, when he visited her flat, found there Theo dore Larbig, a traveling salesman for a Providence wire company, with a wife and children in Brooklyn. Meserole took off his coat and lay on the bed to rest. His story is that Larbig brutally beat the woman, and that he was not strong enough to protect her with his hands; therefore he shot the intruder. Mrs. Comstock's face was much bruised at the timeof her arrest, but the bruises had disappeared when she came into the court house yesterday morning. She was accompanied by her uncle, Col. > A Wife May Sue for Stolen Affections. Chief Justice Elliott of the Indiana supreme court has handed down a decision, the other judges concurring, in which it is decided that a wife has the perfect right to sue for damages against any one who alienates her husband's affections. This is contrary to the old common law and usual custom in this country, the man alone being accorded the prerogative of ob-taining a money recompense for his wife's love. The case decided yesterday at Indianapolis was an appeal from the circuit court of Dearborn county, wherein the judge knocked out a suit for $25,000 damages on demurrer. The principals in the case were Leah Haynes, plaintiff, pals in the case were Lean Haynes, plaintin, and Flora Knowlin, defendant. The former charged the latter with taking away her husband from her, and the court held on demurrer that the plaintiff had no grounds for action.

Settling the Walker Estate. Judge Dennis, in the city circuit court at Baltimore, yesterday heard and passed upon the bill of exceptions to the auditor's account in the trust estate of the late Noah Walker, involving $200,000. Mr. Walker died in 1874 and left a large estate in the trusteeship of his two nephews, Samuel Hamilton Caughey and Noah Walker Caughey, for the benefit of his heirs. Last spring a bill in equity was filed requiring an accounting of the trustees. James W. McEiroy, as a special auditor, furnished ac-counts by which it appeared that S. Hamilton Caughey, the surviving trustee was indicated Caughey, the surviving trustee, was indebted to the estate in the sum of $199,148.52. Mr. Caughey furnished counter charges to the amount of $189,000 and admitted an indebtedness of $10,000. In the meantime the old-established clothing house of Noah Walker, with branches in several cities, was forced to make an assignment.

Nutt's daughter Lizzie, had cast aspersions on the young lady's character, and her father had called him to account. Dukes, claimed that Nutt tried to shoot him. Dukes claimed that Nutt tried to shoot him and he, in self-defense, killed his assailant Public opinion was entirely with the Nutts, but after a memorable trial Dukes was acquitted. The judge denounced the verdict and indignation ran high. A short time later James Nutt, a brother of Lizzie, shot and killed Dukes on the street. Young Nutt was tried in Pittsburg and acquitted. A Daisy Roughly Handled. In the queen's bench division of her majesty's high court of justice in London yesterday Mr. Poland applied for the granting of a rule nisi calling upon the vice chancellor of Cambridge University to show cause why a writ of habeas corpus should not be issued in favor of Daisy Hopkins, who, the petitioner claimed, was illegally imprisoned in the spinning house. The girl, it appears, was imprisoned by the vice chancellor in accordance with an ancient university law giving him that power for walking with a student in the university. Mr. Poland, in arguing for the issuance of the rule nist, said there was no such charge known to the law as the offense of walking the street with a university man. The court ordered with a university man. The court ordered that the rule nisi be issued and made return-able on Friday next.

Virginia Soon to Elect Another Sens The Virginia senate and house yesterday d cided to elect a United States Senator next Tuesday. In the senate a bill was passed allow ing Rockbridge county to make a loan for the purpose of erecting a new court house. The Botetourt, W. B. Simmons; Campbell, R. H. Ward; Fauquier, E. M. Spillman; Nelson, Thos. P. Fitzpatrick; Pulaski, Isaac Hudson.

In the house a resolution was presented from the contraction of the contrac the senate providing that the general assembly proceed on Thursday, at 12:30 p. m., to the election of a judge for the chancery court for the city of Richmond to fill the unexpired term caused by the death of Judge E. M. Fitzhugh. A joint resolution was reported from the sen-ate providing for the collection of the direct tax due from the United States, after which the house proceeded to the nomination of county

Dating a head-may be a good policy-sometimes. But to date back. tradition says that Emperor Charles IV., while deer hunting in Bohemia, discovered the Carlsbad Springs. This is some 500 years ago. Since then this place has been the first health resort in Europe. Carlsbad has but 12,000 of its own residents; every summer it has a population of 45,000, the others coming from all parts of the world to avail themselves of its wonderful waters that are so gifted with healing power, Goethe, Schiller; Bismarck, Moltke, emperors, all men of wealth and station have found renewed health here. Can't go, you say, on account of the expense?

Don't need to. The genuine Carlsbad Sprudel Salts answer exactly the same purpose. Every drug store has them. The genuine have the signature of "Eisner & Mendelson Co., Sole Agents, New York," on the bottle. A prominent medical authority says: "What we positively ascertained is that Carlsbad Sprudel Salts in a high degree promotes or-Salts in a high degree promotes or-ganic changes in the system; that principally by its alkaline constituents as an antacid throughout the organism, and that it performs this wholesome action by stimulating, augmenting and chemically altering the whole process of secretion." "There is no doubt that this edition will meet the public approval. It is suited in price, conciseness. omprehensiveness, elegance, and accuracy for the sidest circulation. Its publication is a most important edia, not even excepting the Britannica, which will outrank this one. The chief charm of this edition is that its scholarship is put in shape to be taken and used profitably by the average reader. In the matter of maps, in which line we have examined the volume with special care, we believe that no finer were eve published in a work of similar grade."-Pitteburg
